

Rykarda Parasol, The Cloak Of Comedy

If I changed my mind
And I want to rewind
Because I took my time
You say no dice
I live alone
I walk alone
Everything I've known has stamp
Why don't we be like a falling leaf?
Time here is brief
Got no time for grief

Baby I was only joking
I'm ready to be your fool
I'm always running running running out
Just when things get good

Now all this time
You've been on my mind
Was I blind
And unkind
Oh no
I do what I can
Ain't sorry for what I am
I don't plan to be distant
God what I need
It was only tears
We all wanna please
Now I'm on my knees crying

Baby I was only joking
I'm ready to be your fool
I'm always running running running out
Just when things get good

Baby I was only joking
I'm ready to be your fool
I'm always running running running out
Just when things get good
