Rykers, As The Laughter Dies

Ниа

Its easy to live in hope when theres some hope to speak of

And its easy to be optimistic when the future lies ahead

But can you really achieve some lasting happiness when theres nothing left to dream off

And the only thing to be sure about

Is that times slipping through your hands like grains of sand

As they regard the essence

Of their past existence

Fading right before their eyes

Spiraling downward one directional

With extreme persistance

As the laughter dies

The brightest flame burns the quickest

Leaving an eternal darkness to be illuminated by death itself

The basic of faith and consolation

To temporary lift the loneliness to embrance the gift the answer to end all doubts

As they regard the essence

Of their past existence

Fading right before their eyes

Spiraling downward one directional

With extreme persistance

As the laughter dies...

Dead end?

I am the one who takes the bow infront of those

Gratefully pushed off and stored away

Suffering from withdrawal

I am not sure if countless memories simply leave me

Be if III have the courage to hold on

Od decide to take my own life

Willingly

.....end?
