

Rykers, Without A Second Thought

without a second thought i would choose the path i am now walking on without any doubts or regrets i think this is the place where i belong times have changed and so have i so why should i give in before i've even tried and so

another page is turned in the filthy book of entertainment as nobody learns a simple thing and open minds only enforce restraint so i'll do what's right for me even if for you it's wrong so much for the reason that i'll still be here...
a) ...when you're gone
b) ...when you're longtime gone and now it's time to set the record straight to see how i can rely on all the people that surround to figure out if it's a new beginning or only the same old story with just a different sound?

BLABLABLAAAAHHHHHHHHHHHH!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!!
