

Rykers, Wrong

I have learned to live my life all alone to trust no one except for my own the truth i've learned to see but i can't accept that it's meant to be my will is strong
but could i be wrong
for whta i've been searching all along the relegion of truth to feel through experienced pain the body takes much before it drives your mind insane
for what i've been searching all along chains that bound me orders that used to be my will is still strong but i am wrong
... wrong... i am fking wrong... wrong!
