S?bin? Babayeva, When The Music Dies

You, you are my best friend You are my everything, so don?t leave me now You, you are the best of me The reason that I believe, so don?t leave me now

And I try to keep us alive But you?re cold, cold, cold Now every second that my heart skips, it ends

But I still wanna keep us alive But it?s cold, cold, cold, cold when the music dies It?s all black and white and there?s no sunrise When the music dies

No you, you can?t even look at me Still not gonna speak to me Whoah, whoah, whoah

And I try to keep us alive But you?re cold, cold, cold Now every second that my heart skips, it ends

But I try to keep us alive But it?s cold, cold, cold, cold When the music dies (cold, cold, cold) It gets cold and there?s no sunrise (cold, cold, cold)

So cold, now every second that my heart skips, it ends

Oh? try to keep us alive But you?re cold, cold, so cold Every second my heartbeat ends

Still I try to keep us alive But you?re cold, cold, cold When the music dies
