S Club, Who Do You Think You Are?

We've been living a lie
We're not what we seem to be
And we've had enough of being fooled
Now we wanna be free

Sure we be living a dream (somebody else's) And now we wanna live on But we gotta leave this game behind And know who we really are

Don't let anyone take over your life (no no no)
Don't give up your dreams and you'll be alright (no no)
They think they can control you but they should've told you
When you're a clone, you know you're never alone

Who
Who do you think you are
Do you know for sure
Now tell me
Who
Who do you think you are
Do you know for sure
Now tell me

Who do you think you are Who do you think you are

We're ready for change And we just wanna come out And it's up to you and me now boy Why are we waiting around

Feels like we're caught in a trance (somebody else's) Maybe it's all in the mind But we've gotta find a way to leave all of this trouble behind

Don't let anyone take over your life (no no no)
Don't give up your dreams and you'll be alright (no no)
They think they can control you but they should've told you
When you're a clone, you know you're never alone

Who who do you think you are Do you know for sure Now tell me who who do you think you are Do you know for sure Now tell me

Who do you think you are Do you know for sure Now tell me

Who Who do you think you are Do you know for sure Now tell me

Who
Who do you think you are
Do you know for sure
Now tell me
Who
Who do you think you are
Do you know for sure
Now tell me
