S.T.U.N., We Will Come To You

Learn to stand on your own And you'll run into us Universal answers wait by In the conscious you'll find We will come to you

You could heal with a strong will We just have to get by How we've been wronged from the lie We will come to you

You're the end of the drone When you're not what you've been shown Money could never buy the chance to be alive We will come to you