The world is filled with problems and misfortune bums and abortion, ex-cons extortion enran the force of exon I have a tendency towards sadness, a dependency on madness Hennessy makes me unfriendly and I stab shit I live and entirely different life than you Im down and violently riff with a knife to get what I like cuz the system is trife I choose evil cuz it's easier, the sleasier the better cuz I'm too lazy to go out of my way to please ya in seven years the world will be finished triple sixes nuclear buttons pushed kid, Necrodamus predicts it when we die we turn into shit like flies no heaven just hell on earth so I keep victimising innocent eyes

(Sabac)

For all the nazis who said the US, pops in our wig today America is still the greatest country to live I visited places with no runnin water for forces we're fortunate to have the clean the most con often afforded I aborted a violent past avoided going to prison supported the thought of task and giving hope to the living promote my mission of a time filled with violence and peace I find strength in enemies that all keep challenging me Im in the streets teaching teams about justice and freedom and how eccentric they are and how we trust them and need them I'm speaking truth all the proof is in how far we have come let's celebrate what we've accomplished but our job isn't done

My relationships are willing a dictatorship impregnate a bitch, I'm not responsible, let some one else raise the kid causing effect is bullshit nothing ever effects me my Beretta protects me - Fuck god, he better respect me you ain't blowing up rapper none of us are unless you mean blowing up with a bomb under your car only thing your promised is a daster deceise of bullet a natural cause there's no debate - I'm actually sure I ain't clicking with you, your looking at me ill, I'm flipping on you no one stopping me when I stick a knife in you jux on your grill there can never be a day of positive without negative flesh and positive face with a razor to balance the opposite

(Sabac)

My twist is the sober, no longer smoked out on crack I got food on my table a home in close on my back my motive is attack, my vision is now clearer than ever I resently settled the beef with the man in the mirror I stand and deliver, don't worry 'bout housing no more it feel good to make some money, got my album in stores as bad as it seems, the tunnel got light at the end I'm out to mystic, are where I headed and rising the fence defend ourselves to live a quieter day, no longer will we hide away forever will we learn to predator, but fight to bite the prey my right to say that we will overcome any big opstacle is not impossible if you believe in living logical

We must know the negative,(the neegative) to recognize the positive (recognize the positive) we must know the positive,(the poositive) to recognize the negative (so negative, its all relative)
