

Sabrina Carpenter, Run and Hide

I don't want to buy what they're selling these days
Saying feeling and falling is all a mistake, no, no
And why does everybody look at young hearts feeling of Like it's just a matter of time before they break, no, no

They started saying when you can't hide, run
When you can't run, hide
Started thinking love's a loaded gun
Nobody wants to fight
And when did we all start thinking of the world
Stop spinning in a kiss goodnight
And when did our heartbeat beating too fast
Start meaning it was worth the while

I wanna, I wanna be loved
I wanna, I wanna be loved
I wanna, I wanna be loved
And I don't wanna run
I don't wanna hide

Traitors have eyes
Delight a scream
Traded out
Holding is the
Holding back everything
(no, no, oh x2)
And words got shorter
Quiet got longer
And all of a sudden love started looking like a memory
(No, no, no)

They started saying if you can't hide, run
If you can't run, hide
Started thinking love's a loaded gun
Nobody wants to fight
And when did we all start thinking of the world
Stop spinning in a kiss goodnight
And when did our heartbeat beating too fast
Start meaning it was worth the while

I wanna, I wanna be loved
I wanna, I wanna be loved
I wanna, I wanna be loved
And I don't wanna run
I don't wanna hide, no

They started saying when you can't hide, run
But love's gonna be a loaded gun
Oh a losing fight
And when did we all start thinking of the world
Stop spinning in a kiss goodnight

I wanna, I wanna be loved
I wanna, I wanna be loved
And I don't wanna run

And I don't wanna run

I don't wanna hide
