

Sabrina Taylor, Daddy

Do you know my face?
And if you walked by would you recognize me or turn and walk away reminisce about me
'cause i don't know where we stand
and i don't know who i am

Daddy i love you
been thinking of you lately I've been seeing in the sky your face and that's why my eyes cry
since you've been gone
my world has become completely
alone

Do you know my voice?
And if you listened could you hear me would it confuse you with thoughts make you reminisce about me am I ok where i am I need you to understand that..

Daddy i love you
been thinkin of you lately I've been
eyes cry
my world has become completely
alone

Too many years have gone by without any words can you hear me at night those prayers are yours I wish you could know me maybe someday - someday

Cause daddy I love you
i've been
seeing in the sky your face and thats why my
eyes cry
alone
