

Sacred Tuesday, Wait And See

To find another time alone by myself I'll slowly walk to road to wrap myself right when i fall again by myself I'll step up to walk in the rain I'll stand up just to be knocked down you'll pick me up and break me down this splendid little war you've waged takes a page down in history today and I know I've done my wrong but don't you see the change this peace of mind we've made here today

To find another time alone
by myself I'll slowly walk to road
by myself I'll step up to walk in the rain
I know now that I can make it on my own
I know now that I can make it on my own
I know now that I can make it on my own
I know now that I can make it on my own Just wait and see you can't kill me Just wait and see you won't kill me Take your peace of mind, and I'll take mine where ever it fits

To find another time alone
by myself I'll slowly walk to road
to wrap myself right when i fall again
by myself I'll step up to walk in the rain they won't kill me just wait and see
