

Sade, The Big Unknown

only love could bring us bring us to this bitter plane only one of us
who's gonna walk away
here in the deep below
that only darkness
really knows

I'm hoping for a humble seed to grow no I won't surrender to this hard hearted night
though I know
the sun's gonna bring the palest of light and all that remains
this everything is gone
this life is mine so I'll carry on

I'm just tryna hold on I'm falling in the dark below
I feel I'm falling in the big unknown

I will rise
I will rise again
a humble seed will grow
