

SafetySuit, Something I Said

I'm so confused, I must be losing it, this can't be right
I never knew that you could choose to love someone then change your mind
So I just wonder why and was it something I said

You tell me once, you tell me twice, you tell me three times more
Tell me everything I want to hear and nothing more
Cause you know I am on your side no matter what you do

With every consequence it's your defense on why it's mine
And I could take it if I knew just why I waste my time with you
So I just have to find out

Was it something I said to you
Was it something we can't work through
Was it something I made you do
Or was that something you

So let me ask you I just have to now that you're not mine
Do you feel free, have what you need, or do you still feel scared inside
Cause I am on the line and don't know what to do
No you know I am on the line so

Was it something I said to you
Was it something we can't work through
Was it something I made you do
Or was that something you

Sometimes I'm bold and brash; and sometimes I'm prone to crash
Sometimes I say too much; and sometimes it's not enough
But I'll never hold you back from something you want so bad
Just tell me so I'm not sad, was it something I said

Something I said to you
Was it something we can't work through
Was it something I made you do
Or was it something I said
To you, to you
Was it something that we just can't work through
Something, something
