

Saga, Hot To Cold

I woke to the sound of a crash
Oh no, I know you're fighting next door
I thought I'd seen the last
I can't believe you still go back for more
What have you got in mind
Why do you waste your time
He gives you nothing at all
He's hurt you before
He'll hurt you again
Leave it all behind

[Chorus]

Here I am
Wondering when you'll come into my life
There you are
With fire in your eyes
Here I am
You know that I'll do everything I can
There you are
Holding my heart in your hands
You know there's something wrong
And I know, I've seen it on your face
Soon as he finds you're gone
There'll be someone new taking your place
Haven't you had enough
Haven't you had it rough
To hold emotions for three
So take my advice
Head for the door
Leave it all behind

[Repeat Chorus]

[Repeat Chorus]

Here I am
There you are
Here I am
