

Sagisu Shiro, From My Dreams

You were my fantasy
And now you're reality
You found a way into my life from my dreams
You're givin' me everything
I never thought love could bring
You found a way into my heart from my dreams
Before I met you I'd always get by
I never doubted, I was strong inside
I was happy in my life
Everything was going as I had planned
I always felt I had the upper hand
And I could handle anything

Bridge

I never gave a thought to the possibility
That there was something missin'
So hung up on makin' me priority
I only had to listen to my imagination
I wake up in the morning feelin' fine
Now you're the first thing that is on my mind
I feel a change in me
Emotions that I never knew I had
Are pouring out of me 'cos I'm so glad
Of what you mean to me
