

Sahara Hotnights, Nerves

Hey sir didn't catch your name
Being undercover doesn't work today
Hey sir won't you please explain
Your passion about nothing that guides your way
Why don't we get on it
Too slow to even understand
Why don't we get on it
Too paralysed to even take a stand

Stand up you may not be excused
You never try so you never lose
Speak up all your clever ideas
Just stick to yourself and you never get used

I'll stay on your nerves
Will you ever let go
(oh no)

Hey miss there's no guarantee
Show me you got another trick up your sleeve
Hey miss you start to sound like me
Think you're alone being well deceived
Why don't we get on it
Too slow to even understand
Why don't we get on it
Too paralysed to even take a stand

I really cared when you were on about all those worries coming back at night
I tried listening to the same old doubts
It's not the end if the choice ain't right

One more time don't wanna hear you're busy when I try to bring you back to life
One more time don't say you're scared to go outside you might get humanized
Don't go don't go get humanized
