

Saint Etienne, Paper

Here she comes,
she's running over the hill
with her friend in tow.

I know that it feels that there's no-one else on earth.
Oh, heavenly days, you and me.

Ooh...
Only love can mend a broken heart.

There's a place that I've seen in my dreams,
I'd like to live there by a golden sea.
The only sound that I ever want to hear
is the sound of her voice.

Here she comes,
she's running over the hill
with her friend in tow.

Ooh...
Only love can mend a broken heart.
Ooh... (only love,)
Only love can mend a broken heart.
Ooh... (only love,)
Only love can mend a broken heart.
Ooh... (only love,)
Only love can mend a broken heart.
Ooh... (only love.)
