

Saint Etienne, The Way I Fell For You

We were laughing as the rain kept falling
We didn't give a damn
And there's nothing in the world to stop us
I just held your hand (and it's enough)

Your sister says we don't know each other
She's not 24
My dad's not here to tell me nothing
We used to talk before (and it's enough)

Hello baby, hello boy
It seems to me we've got it all
I like to run but I take it back
I'm not one to care about that (no, no)

We were laughing as the rain kept falling
You didn't give a damn
And there's nothing in the world to stop us
I just held your hand (and it's enough)

Hello baby, hello boy
It seems to me we've got it all
I like to run but I take it back
I'm too young, don't care about that
Yeah, I'm too young
Yes you know, I'm too young
It's the way I fell for you
It's the way I fell for you

Hello baby, hello boy
It seems to me we've got it all
I like to run but I take it back
I'm not one to care about that (no, no)
