

Salem, Kaddish

It seems only yesterday
I lost them all
Years have past me by
And time can't heal this loss

Bear your prayers for their souls
Bear your prayers for their souls

Hope was somewhere else
Far away
And the nightmare was life itself

Bear your prayers for their souls

I know that memories can't be shared
But i suffer a pain that isn't mine
Somewhere in the back of my thoughts
There will always be a holocaust
