

Saliva, Best Of Me

I, am all alone
Cause you cut me open
And poured me out
Live a lie
All alone
With your door wide open
You throw me out
And I bend
Until I break
And I bend
Until I break
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
And you threw it all away
Sinned, a mistake
I'm bruised and broken
From your fall from grace
I believe
Everything you say
You gave me everything and threw it away
And I bend
Until I break
And I bend
Until I break
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
And you threw it all away
(solo)
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from
(Out of the best of me)
You took everything from me
And you threw it all away
