

Saliva, Hollywood

Yeah

Here I am again

Sitting watching all these people that i'll never see again

Good bye to all my friends

I'm leaving this place and i'm never looking back again my friend

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

I'm chasing my dreams again

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

And i'll never be the same

It keeps turning 'round

And everything seems fine and dandy here in tinsel town for now what do you make of it when everybody's doing drugs and making promises like this

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

I'm chasing my dreams again

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

And i'll never be the same

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

I'm chasing my dreams again

'Cause i'm going to hollywood

And i'll never be the same

I'm going to hollywood

I'm chasing my dreams again

I'm going to hollywood

And i'll never be the same
