

Saliva, King Of My World

I'll never see any side of heaven
I walk for miles to a place in hell
It doesn't matter what you think I'm supposed to be
Because I myself know all too well
I'll open your eyes and make you see
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you (the walls of Jericho)
The walls of Jericho
My mind alone is filled with rage for you
I am the bast*rd to your sheep
I am the master of my destiny
I am the king of all I see
(King)..I'll open your eyes and make you see
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you (the walls of Jericho)
321 here I come here I come again
321 here I come here I come again
321 here I come yeh here I come
321 here I come here I COME!
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls around you now
I'm the king of my world (king of my world)
I'll break down the walls (the walls of Jericho)
The walls of Jericho
