

Saliva, King Of My World (Chris Jericho's Theme)

I'll never see any side of heaven,
I walk for miles to a blaze in hell,
It doesn't matter what you think I'm supposed to be,
Because I'm myself know all too well.

I'll open your eyes and make you see...
I'm the King of my World, (King of my World)
I'll break down the walls around you now.
I'm the King of my World, (King of my World)
I'll break down the walls around you.

My mind alone is filled with rage for you,
I am the pastor to your sheep,
I am the master of my destiny,
I am the King of all I see.

(King)

I'll open your eyes and make you see...
I'm the King of my World, (King of my World)
I'll break down the walls around you now.
I'm the King of my World, (King of my World)
I'll break down the walls around you.

3, 2, 1 here I come again, come again.

3, 2, 1 here I come, here I come again.

3, 2, 1 here I come again, here I come.

3, 2, 1 here I come, here I come!
