

Saliva, Superstar

Now has come the day that I take the lead and I make you follow.
Toast the champion cause I came for greed and not for tomorrow.
If it feels good then it feels good and I do it all day.
You want me to play you best bring your brain, you best bring your money.
yeah
Make me a superstar.
yeah
No matter who you are.
Razorblade and lines and I walk the line without feeling no one.
Damn my throat is dry, I can't taste the wine from these empty bottles.
Films and magazines its all what I need and all what I planned on.
Where's my limousine.
It's just like a dream that I won't wake up from.
Yeah
Make me a superstar.
Yeah
It don't matter who you are.
Yeah
Make me a superstar.
Yeah
No matter who you are.
And all of my pills and all of my drinks is makin me, makin me, makin me.
And all that I feel and all that I see is makin me, makin me, makin me.
Cover me in greed, cause you planted the seed when you fed my ego.
Needless and disease for old invincible me like some kind of hero.
Is it no surprise that I'm paralyzed by my fame and fortune.
As I close my eyes and dive into the sky I'm dead 27.
Yeah
Make me a superstar.
Yeah
It don't matter who you are.
Yeah
Make me a superstar.
Yeah
No matter who you are.
And all of my pills and all of my drinks is makin me, makin me, makin me.
And all that I feel and all that I see is makin me, makin me, makin me.
And all of my pills and all of my drinks is killin me, killin me, killin me.
And all that I feel and all that I see is fakin me, fakin me, fakin me.
Yeah
Make me a superstar, yeah, it don't matter who you are.

Make me a superstar, yeah, no matter who you are.
