

Sally Oldfield, Easy

Oldfield

Oh I don't know if its the rain falling
Theres something in my eyes like the shining sea
Oh I don't know if its a new love calling
There's something growing in me and it's strong and free
Oh its easy to tell you I love you!
Letting go of everything that's holding me
Cos you're a real man, you're warm and strong
And lying here beside you is where I belong
So come on come on I wanna taste the wild honey
Its sweet on your lips and its making me feel
At ease with the man in me
Keep on keep on keep on moving to me
With the grace and the rhythm of the warm rain falling
Keep on keep on keep on doing it to me
I got a feeling its gonna be a bright new morning
Oh its easy to tell you I love you!
Letting go of everything that's holding me
Cos you're a real man, you're warm and strong
And lying here beside you is where I belong
So come on come on, Oh baby don't tease me
You know there is nothing that ain't gonna please me
I'm easy with the man in me
So come on come on I wanna taste the wild honey
Its sweet on your lips and its making me feel
At ease with the man in me
Oh its easy to tell you I love you!
Letting go of everything that's holding me
Cos you're a real man, you're warm and strong
And lying here beside you is where I belong
And its easy to tell you I love you!
Letting go of everything that's holding me
Cos you're a real man, you're warm and strong
And lying here beside you is where I belong
