

Salt, Undressed

In this room
In this room of mine
In this room
Undressed you
Undressed you oh my god

Too shy to make a move
Too bold to step a side
I had you
I had you oh my god

You take it off, take it off
make me fall deeper
You put it on, put it on let me be

In this dream
In this dream of mine
In this dream
I forced you to lay me down my god

To nude to be strong
To wild to be weak
I rub it out
My grief is still here though
My grief is still here my god

You said you heard me
You said you heard me

I rub it out
My grief is still here though
My grief is still here though
My grief is still here though
