

Salvador, Shine

I woke up to another day.
Another day to celebrate.
Your beauty and your mystery
is more than any I can see.
Im not the man I was before
With You my life is so much more,
Break the chains and open doors to a world I cant ignore.

Lord let me shine, shine like the moon
A reflection of you!
All that I do!
Lord let me be, light for you truth!
Light of the world I wanna be you!

Ta shine for you

Simple as a passing smile
Were listening a little while.
To someone thats convinced that they are in this all alone.
Well heres my chance to share the news!
Ta introduce the good thats You!
Here You go again, youve never ceased to blow my mind!

Lord let me shine, shine like the moon
A reflection of you!
All that I do!
Lord let me be, light for you truth!
Light of the world I wanna be you!

Ta shine for you

Youre the love that we all need!
You lift us up to our feet!
Hold the key to eternity!
The King of kings alive in me.

Lord let me shine, shine like the moon
A reflection of you!
All that I do!
Lord let me be, light for you truth!
Light of the world I wanna be you!

Lord let me shine, shine like the moon
A reflection of you!
All that I do!
Lord let me be, light for you truth!
Light of the world I wanna be you!
