

Sam Brown, Your Love Is All

It doesn't really matter much
If you think I'm right or wrong
Don't even think about it
Breaking up a happy home
You said you'd care for me
Said you'd be there
But you're mistaken if you think I've
Wasted my time

You don't fool me
'Cos I know what's going on
The way you just walk out of here
As if there were nothing wrong
Imagine nowhere to turn
When will you see
That you're mistaken if you think I've
Wasted my time

Your love is all
I have to hold
From this day forth
We carry on
For good or bad
You have my soul
Your love is all forever more

Did you ever did you never
Did you think of me at all
You'd better both start listening
'Cos I'm tearing down this wall
You must believe in me
Don't ever leave
'Cos you're mistaken if you think I've wasted my time

Your love is all
I have to hold
From this day forth
We carry on
For good or bad
You have my soul
Your love is all forever more
