

Sam Fender, The Borders

we were like brothers everybody said we looked the same you're a little taller and broader, and bloder we were afraid of your morher hell, she used to hit you so hard and your dad took off when you were a baby and you still hate me for my dad stuck around you pin me to the ground 8 years old whit a replica gun pushin' in my skull saying you're gonna kill me if I tell never did and never will that house was living hell

I remember my mother when she found a new man and your mother though she found a partner a father for you
no wonder
you can't stand me
I can't stand me, too
I can't stand me, too
your gone mother repaired the anger nine me spoke to me like I was an adult didn't take side and didn't turn me against my dad then she took those pills and now she's gone see her in the night in the corner of my eye and I see her in the night heard you glassed a boy back in the borders some naughty family oys are after you you pinnefd me to the wall and said my mother stole your nheritance from you we ain't got a penny between wor holding up this tent that we live in you pinned me to the wall and snasjhed a bottle your eyes the door ro hell and all whitin
