

Sam Phillips, Entertainmen

she married a gold mine with a time bomb he went off to be legend now her love's a corporation and she's just post humorous entertainmen

watch me
let me be your t.v.

he asked her to spread her magazines all across his floor he finally found his bathing beauty and she was a girl worth wading for my father loved to watch the blondes burning down our street so I learned to sing and to dance on water at my mother's feet
