

Sam Salter, Love Again

[Spoken]

Now this girl could have easily been just another girl in da black book but what i loved about her most is that she genuinly loved me for who i am i mean i gave her all my love but no matter how much i gave she never asked for more than i could give and i think thats what made me wanna take another chance on love

Now I can write a song about falling in love
But I can't seem to find to find myself
So many times I wanted to say that u take my breath away
And I bathe in the past I won't let go But there's something u need to know

Chorus

I just wanna love again
I'm sick and tired of tryin' to pretend
That I don't need love again
Cuz it hurts too much without love
I just wanna feel again
What it feels like to be in love
So I'm gonna let u in
And take another chance on love

Now I can be a million miles away
I'm own out desperate out lost in outer space
No matter how hard I fight it I try to run away
Love tracks me down and grabs ahold
And sometimes just won't let go

Chorus

I just wanna love again
I'm sick and tired of tryin' to pretend
That I don't need love again
Cuz it hurts too much without love
I just wanna feel again
What it feels like to be in love
So I'm gonna let u in
And take another chance on love on love on love o-o-on love and take another chance...

You are the wind beneath my wings
You are my soul my everything You are the reason why I keep on trying to fall in love one more time Giving my heart my all to you Baby there's nothing I wont do for your love Won't do for your touch

Chorus

I just wanna love again
I'm sick and tired of tryin' to pretend
That I don't need love again
Cuz it hurts too much without love
I just wanna feel again
What it feels like to be in love
So I'm gonna let u in
And take another chance on love

on love... o-o-o-on love
and take another chance on love
