

Sam Sparro, No End In Sight

There's no revolution, everyone's been drugged
Maybe we'd wake up if our life support were unplugged
We're jumping out the window without thinking it through
I try to find the peace in me, so find the peace in you

'Cause there's no end in sight
No end in sight
I'll believe it when I see it
But there's no end in sight

There's an institution from which one can't escape
My hands are tied behind my back, my mouth is shut with tape
These chains are rather comfortable from this auspicious view
I try to find the peace in me, so find the peace in you

'Cause there's no end in sight
No end in sight
I'll believe it when I see it
But there's no end in sight

No end in sight
No end in sight
I'll believe it when I see it
But there's no end in sight

Big ball of confusion
Junkyard of the heart
Everything we put together seems to fall apart
But in between the cracks I see a great big ball of love
It goes on forever out into the sky above

Cause there's no end in sight
No end in sight
I'll believe it when I see it
But there's no end in sight

No end in sight
No end in sight
I'll believe it when I see it
But there's no end in sight

No end in sight (x7)
