

Samael, Being

first day in an unknown place nothing to say just a seeing face checking names and codes longing to give an ode to fame I kept friends in my mind and a part of the land I left behind so here I start to break the ice beyond the mirror of peoples' eyes step out from lethargy to show the world what I can be so we ride all doors are open now to ride, take the straight way to anywhere good day in the warmest place nothing to say just visiting space solar point in stellar plan stairpath cuts through cosmic land magma of thoughts lava of soul can pay with time patience is rewarded
