

Samantha Fox, Aim To Win

Everyone in the Main Street,
watching the way that they look.
checking out by each other,
see whats going on going on.
Catching up by the crystal,
while this face in my trick.,
Now its dancing in parkside,
and we get going and going and going
We gotta Aim to win,
never ever Aim to lose.
We gotta Aim to win,
we can be the way we chose.
Hand in Hand in the subway,
rolling home in the rain.
All we need is each other,
and we get going and going and going.
We gotta Aim to win,
never ever Aim to lose.
We gotta Aim to win,
we can be the way we chose.
Days from now,
we can go our own way.
I wonder how,
you would know the way to go.
Tomorrow is today.
We gotta Aim to win,
never ever Aim to lose.
We gotta Aim to win,
we can be the way we chose.
