

Samantha Mumba, Sound Of The Undergroud

Disco dancing with the lights down low,
Beats are pumping on my stereo,
Neighbours banging on the bathroom wall,
They're saying crank the base i gotta get some more.

(Bridge)

Water's runnin' in the wrong direction.
Got a feelin' it's a mixed up sign,
I can see it in my own reflection,
Somethin funny's going on inside my mind.
Don't know what is pushin' me higher,
it's the static from the floor below,
Then it drops and catches like fire,
It's a sound I, It's a sound I know,

(Chorus)

It's the sound of the underground
The beat of the drum goes round and around,
Into the overflow,
Where the girls get down to the sound of the radio.

Out to the 'lectric light

Where the baseline jumps to the backstreet line

The beat goes around and round

It's the sound of the under,

Sound of the underground.

Chain reaction running through my veins,
Pumps the baseling up into my brains,
Screws my mind until I loose control, and when the building rocks i know it's got my soul.

(Bridge)

(Chorus)

I don't know what is pushing me higher,
It's the static from the floor below,
and then it drops and catches like fire,
It's the sound I, It's the sound I
Its the sound I, It's the sound I know (oh oh oh oh oh oh ah)

(Chorus x3)
