Samantha Ronson, Pull My Hair Out

You make me wanna pull my hair out (you know)
Set myself on fire (you know)
Cause I'm so fucking tired (you know)
Tired of hearin' all these lies
I wanna turn my mind off (you know)
Put my head through the mirror (you know)
Sit and watch it bleed (you know)
Just to watch it bleed
And if you were me
Do you like it when you hear me scream
I know you like it cause you know what I mean
I know one day I'm gonna be okay
I know everything is gonna be okay
You make me wanna break in pieces (you know)
Hide and sleep so I don't care (you know)
Cause I just wanna kiss you (you know)
Steal your breath and give it back
I just wanna feel you (you know)
Taste your skin so I remember (you know)
Remember what it is I want (you know)
Cause I think you're what I want
And I gotta know if you were me
Do you like it when you hear me scream
I know you like it cause you know what I mean
I know one day I'm gonna be okay
I know everything is gonna be okay
Do you like it when you hear me scream
I know you like it cause you know what I mean
I know one day I'm gonna be okay
I know everything is gonna be okay
