

Samm Henshaw, Joy

People are sometimes confused about prayer
And that's the saddest thing for me
Because people think its only when something goes wrong
That's when you pray

This one might leave you teary eyed
This one gone keep you flying high
This one gone get you through the night
This song is called Joy
Sweet joy

I had to conquer my fears
I had to wrestle with faith
I made some plans for the future
Them plans kept showing up late
That lead to Joy
Sweet joy

Became a stranger to friends
But real pally with my doubts
I had to lose the bigger picture
Just to figure me out
To find some Joy
Sweet Joy

La La, La la la la la la la la la la la la
Joy
Tell somebody say
La La, La la la la la la la la la la la la
Joy

The CEO of excuses
I prince of masking my pain
I used to high five my woes
I used to know them by name
Till I found joy
Oh sweet joy

Ah Maybe I was tripping could of been the pressure
Maybe I'll stop seeking all these earthly pleasures
May I'll find joy
Sweet joy ohh

La La, La la la la la la la la la la la la
Joy (were just searching for some joy oh joy)
Grab somebody anybody say
La La, La la la la la la la la la la la la
Joy (I just found my joy oh yeah)

So my source of joy
Has not been
From the things I have
But its been from being in his presence

Don't you worry what tomorrow may bring
Cos we got joy
Sweet Joy
