

Sammy Hagar, Mexico

I wanna, I wanna, (Oh oh)
Go to Mexico!

A dusty road made of cobblestone
the sun goes down you're here alone
the day is hot the night gets hotter won't you quench your thirst on the local water? oh no

Yeah a music suite like a cool Santana you wring your sweat from your red bandana like a flash from the past to the pale green coast
this ain't Hollywood this is Mexico

I think I'm going down...

(Chorus)
I wanna, I wanna
Go to Mexico!
There's a time to stay, there's a time to go home.
I wanna, I wanna
Go to Mexico!

you cross the borderline with your best friend Danko.
Oh.....I wanna, oh oh go away oh, Mexico
I really wanna go now
Oh.....I wanna, oh oh go away oh, Mexico
(end of chorus)

I wanna, I wanna,
go to Mexico. (4x, but Mexico is yelled fourth time)

Oh.....I wanna, oh oh go away oh, Mexico
I really wanna go now

A smokey room, Senioreta Spinning around, on straight daquila it's all too fast when you're moving slow
this ain't Hollywood this is Mexico and my head is spinning around...

(Chorus)
(except in "Oh.... I wanna..." lines, "wanna" is repeated twice and this keeps across the borderline!
