

Sammy Hagar, Someone Out There

Travelin' through Heaven all alone with a star
I can't help but wondering if we really are
And I know it may sound crazy, but I felt so all alone
And just today I realized how much and how far we've grown

And I feel so scared and lonely
To think we're the only ones
When I know there's someone out there
And someday they'll come

I know they're gonna come
Oh, yeah

I watch through my window so late every night
I'm hopin' to see your light shine up in the sky
So please don't you keep me waiting all alone here with my thoughts
Well, I believe my imagination, it's all that I've really got

Yeah, and I feel so scared and lonely
When I think we're the only ones
Because I know there's somebody out there
And someday they're gonna come

I feel so scared and lonely
I, I know they're gonna come
Oh, yeah, yeah

Somebody out there
Somebody out there
And I know they're gonna come

Well, I feel so scared and lonely
But, I know they're gonna come
I'll be waiting
Oh, somebody out there
I'll be waiting
Somebody from somewhere
I'll be waiting
Maybe the third kind

I know they're gonna come
