

Sandra, Loreen

take a walk
on a sunday mornin'
have a talk
be silent inside

did you only want the shelter what is turnin' your mind

Loreen, Loreen
they are down on you
could you ever find again
just what you've been before Loreen, Loreen
you're so down and blue
it's gettin' better every day
but you're about to lose your way

an' i tail behind you
range your thoughts
look over your life

an' i know what you're recitin' what is turnin' roun' your mind

Loreen, Loreen
just what you've been before Loreen, Loreen
