

Sandra, You & I

Changes

Turning my pages

What's gone is gone

You gonna show the way

Changes

Over the edges

In all I seem to you

It's always been the same

Take the pieces of my heart

Watching all reange

You and I belong together

You and I too proud to lie

Don't know why it took so long

Till' we got this far

You and I could love forever

You and I

Don't know, we'll try

In the mirror of your eyes

I am not alone

You and I

Secrets

Tell me the story

I know you're way

I wanna hear it all

Secrets

Power and the glory

We're on the edge of life

I found this way before

Left the heavens for a part

Nothing else fade away

You and I belong together

You and I too proud to lie

Don't know why it took so long

Till' we got this far

You and I could love forever

You and I

Don't know, we'll try

In the mirror of your eyes

I am not alone

You and I
