

Sanna Nielsen, Heart of Me

Lyrics:

Heart of me, don't make a fool of me.
You fall in love ...to fast and foolishly.
There's no wisdom in the way ...you feel.
Heart, slow down, it's not the time right now.
Take your time ...until there is no doubt.
Give me half a chance to know... if it's real.
Your sense of wrong and right... does not exist.
New love walks by... you can't resist.
We battle every time, you always win.
But, heart of me ...this time you must give in.
Heart of me don't drag me through the pain.
Sleepless nights and tears that fall like rain.
Let my mind catch up with you ...don't be a fool.
Your sense of wrong and right... does not exist.
New love walks by ...you can't resist.
We battle every time, you always win.
But, heart of me, this time you must give in.
I need you and you need me.
But, I can sense your animosity
All you care and think and feel leads back to love.
Your sense of wrong and right... does not exist.
New love walks by, you can't resist.
We battle ever time, you always win.
But, heart of me, this time I beg you to give in.
... consider this.
Try to resist his fatal kiss.
I'm down here on my knees, please hear my plea.
But heart of me, I beg you to give in.
I beg you to give in.
