Sara Bareilles, I Choose You

Let the bough break, let it come down crashing Let the sun fade out to a dark sky I can't say I'd even notice it was absent Cause I could live by the light in your eyes

I'll unfold before you Would have strung together The very first words Of a lifelong love letter

Tell the world that we finally got it all right I choose you I will become yours and you will become mine I choose you I choose you (Yeah)

There was a time when I would have believed them If they told me that you could not come true Just love's illusion But then you found me and everything changed And I believe in something again

My whole heart Will be yours forever This is a beautiful start To a lifelong love letter

Tell the world that we finally got it all right I choose you I will become yours and you will become mine I choose you I choose you

We are not perfect
We'll learn from our mistakes
And as long as it takes
I will prove my love to you

I am not scared of the elements
I am underprepared, but I am willing
And even better
I get to be the other half of you

Tell the world that we finally got it all right I choose you I will become yours and you will become mine I choose you I choose you
