

Sara Jaroszyk, American Song

I've been sitting here soaking up on another sin
Don't bother asking me all the places that I have been
I swear on my knees that I have been here before
But now it's time to change, to close this open door

I've been lost in time, I know
Now it's time for me to show

That I want to be free from all that brings me down
I need to believe , I will find my light
I need to be free
I just got to believe, I'm gonna be free

I'll live day by day not thinking of a goddamn thing
Just me and my own thoughts leading me to another game
I'll keep my head high heading into the shining sun
I've been lost in time, now I know just where I stand

Even though the world is insane
Now it's time for me to say

I want to be free from all that brings me down
I need to believe , I will find my light
I need you to see - everything is possible
I need to be free, now I need to be free

I want to be free from all that brings me down
I need to believe , I will find my light
I need you to see - everything is possible
Now I need to be free, I need to be free
