

Sara Jaroszyk, My Burning Desire

There is a light created from dark
Your shade of bliss is hard to resist
You have me, your fire, burning down my soul
Still something inside keeps screaming for more

I'm gonna see you coming right to me, I wanna feel you coming right to take me

Through the dark as you walk away, through the dark
I will watch how you take it all
Anything, everything, anything you want
Anything, everything, anything you want

There is a light created from dark
I knew from the start it was nothing but lust
I'm going insane, anything I do for you
Enclose me with desire
I'm screaming for more

I'm gonna see you coming right to me, I wanna feel you coming right to take me

Through the dark as you walk away, through the dark
I will watch how you take it all
Anything, everything, anything you want
Through the dark as you walk away, through the dark
I will watch how you take it all
Anything, everything, anything

In time, I slide, I'm gonna chase you chase you
In time, you'll see, I'm gonna chase you chase you
Chase you, chase you
Chase you, chase you, chase you.
