Sara May, It's Over Now

I know you need me more
Then you show, god stop pretending
It's over, It's easy to see

I know you want to feel
That I'm weak and I need you
So much baby, It's over right now

I know you need me more
Then you show my dear
You know you're hiding love
I can see
And that's the point of all
That you can't give me
You know that she needs more
Girl like me

I know that I am strong
Like I show I ain't pretending
It's over, now who's gonna lose

You know that I am real
Gotta take from live what I need
It's over, I ain't gonna care
