

Sarah Blasko, Fall Down

Long are the days
And the nights of dismay
They're back again
Just like they never ended
I wonder around in the days
Circle around your grave
Just like you never left it

I watch it all fall down
It all falls down

I fall down from helpless feet
And blistered knees
That are cut, and bleed
To find some release
Blood makes your sound
A drop of life
When it can't be found
You can't be found
The sound denial

I watch it all fall down
It all falls down

Is there something else?
One thing I barely recognise
The closer to being revealed
The harder I fall to my knees
Oh I fall, we fall, one by one
But we only make a sound

Ooh, Ooh, Ooh...