

Sarah Blasko, I Wanna Be Your Man

What can you see, can you see when you look into your eyes
How much I wanna be, wanna be someone you can recognise
Say: "It's easy come, easy go"
We living in a man's world
But it's hard to be, hard to be
A woman in your circle
Copy, paste, robots,
I'm so tired of them
I wanna be your man
Maybe you will not understand
I wanna be your man
I know it's hard to comprehend
I wanna be your

Well, I can see, I can see when I look into those eyes
All your family history, I'm like a mirror to your heart
Say: It's easy come, easy go!
You're living in a man's world
It's no place to be, place to be
A woman who is well versed

I wanna be your man
Maybe you will not understand
