

Sarah Brightman, Brown Eyes

I had a dream last night
We never said good-bye
You were here with me again
Brown Eyes

It felt just like old times
When you were by my side
I could see your love shine through
Brown Eyes

Tenderly you were kissing me
As I held you so tight
And you promised me forever
As we loved away the night

You may be a dream
A dream that's passed me by
But I'll always dream of you
Brown Eyes
