

Sarah Brightman, Transformation

You came back
If only I'd come here sooner
Maybe it's better this way
No! Don't talk like that. We're together now.
Everything will be fine
At least I get to see you one last time.
We are home
We are where we shall be forever
Trust in me
For you know I won't run away
From today
This is all that I need
And all that I need to say is...
Don't you know how you've changed me
Strange how I finally see
I found home
You're my home
Stay with me
No! No, please! Don't leave me!
I love you.
